

Economic Analysis System Patent Pending

Allied's Economic Analysis System is the first internet enabled full featured tool for consistent and accurate economic analysis of packaging products. Studies conducted by Allied Development (and others) consistently indicate the number one issue in packaging is economics. Now you can do more accurate, creative, and consistent economic analysis in less time and at lower cost.

Software Features

Benefits

- Very detailed
- Verified to real world products & processes

Highly accurate results

Consistent treatment of all product formats

- Consistent company-wide economic analysis
- Comparable company-wide results

Internet delivery to standard web browser

- Easy to access
- No software investment required
- Access from anywhere
- Access anytime

Full-featured design

Extensive analysis capability

Flexible design

Extensive "what if" capability

Intuitive Design

Easy to use

Content Features

Benefits

Pre-researched cases

- Eliminates need to research assumptions
- Learn from supplied content

Secured proprietary cases

- Create your own cases
- change a few or all of the variables

Automated updates

Stay current with material prices, salaries, lease rates, and many more

Integrated instructions

Easy to learn the system